

Opportunity (for natural persons with Swedish tax law domicile) to donate tax-free dividends to charity

Due to the great need for help in Ukraine, the board of Bokusgruppen would like to remind shareholders who are natural persons with Swedish tax law domicile of the possibility of tax-free dividends to tax-exempt non-profit organizations with non-profit purposes, e.g. SOS Barnbyar.

You who have shares in a securities account can download and fill in one of the forms provided by e.g. SOS Barnbyar: SOS-Barnbyar-aktieutdelning_gavoblankett.pdf (only in Swedish).

Fill in the charity as the recipient (right holder) of your dividend and other information in the form. Then leave the form to your bank or stockbroker and ensure that the form is registered no later than one week before the resolution on dividends by the Annual General Meeting. If you have a depository at your bank, you can ask the bank how you can most easily proceed.

If you have your shares with a bank or other asset manager, you must make e.g. SOS Barnbyar the recipient (right holder) of your dividend with effect no later than one week before the resolution on dividends by the Annual General Meeting. Contact your bank or asset manager for information on how to proceed.

Important information

The registration of rights regarding a gift is valid until further notice and all dividends, interest and other returns that come into an account (ie. that may also be attributable to holdings other than in Bokusgruppen).

If you want to end the gift, fill in the box "Anmälan om avregistrering" in the forms above and then contact your bank or asset manager. The conditions of the charity organizations apply.

Bokusgruppen cannot guarantee that registration means tax exemption for the account holder/ donor.

The reminder and information above are general information only and do not constitute tax advice to any person. The taxation of each individual shareholder depends on the shareholder's particular situation. Each shareholder should therefore analyze its individual tax consequences of donating dividends.
